

Literary Notes.

The Preacher's Magazine for March is the third number of the fourth volume. The leading sermons are entitled "The Fellowship of His sufferings," by the Rev. Mark Guy Pearse, and "The Resurrection of Jesus," by the Rev. Joseph Berry. The Rev. F. L. Wiseman writes on "Mission Preaching: Its Matter and Methods," and the Rev. C. O. Eldridge on "Grasping a Thought: Being Pages for Young Preachers. Among the other articles we notice "The Blood of Sprinkling," by the Rev. Thomas Stephens, "The Healthfulness of Religions," by Thain Davidson, D. D., "How a Commentator was made: Being an Interview with Dr. J. Agar Beet, and the senior editor, the Rev. Mark Guy Pearse continues his article on 'Moses,' writing this month on "The Serpent in the wilderness." The Homiletical Department is complete, several outlines of Easter Sermons being given by distinguished clergymen. The Magazine is published monthly at $1.50 per year, single copies 15c. Wilbur B. Ketcham, Publisher, 2 Cooper Union, New York.

The Chicago Inter Ocean, that great republican news paper, has not suffered by the recent era of financial depression but has gone right along adding to its foundation stones—a large and substantial circulation—with a stride that under the circumstances is truly wonderful. At one time additions to the subscription list were coming at the rate of 800 to 1,100 per day for the daily issue, and as big as 1,500 per day for the Weekly Inter Ocean.

The result of this is to place it easily at the head of the list of great Chicago newspapers. It is certainly a good, clean, family newspaper of the highest order.

We have seen quite a number of watch chains about town ornamented with a neat, little charm in the shape of a watch case opener, which obviates the use of a knife or finger-nail to open the watch. We have just received one, and would advise you to send for one, too. They are sent free on request by the Keystone Watch Case Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., the largest watch case manufacturing concern in the world. They are the makers of the celebrated Jas. Boss cases, the only filled cases which are fitted with the world-famed Non pull out bow (ring). The Company does not sell at retail, but its goods are sold by our local jewelers.

"There are always good openings for life, energetic men and women of good character in our line of business to devote all or part of their time to the work." That is what B. F. Johnson of the firm B. F. Johnson & Co., Richmond, Va., says in reference to their advertisement.

Our meetings were fairly well attended during the winter. The interest is good. We expect to organize a Sunday school in the near future. Have held two children's meetings this winter, they truly were interesting. I expect to address the children at our next service. Fraternally yours,

BOOKS FOR SALE AT THIS OFFICE.

No home is complete without Books, Tracts and Papers; but much the greater part of what is published is either worthless or positively harmful. We cannot rely upon advertisements, as a man, without a conscience can write as good words for what is either valueless or nefarious as for that which is worthy and elevating. In this department it is our aim to offer only such books, tracts and papers, as the editor can personally recommend. We expect to add to the list from time to time as we find books of special merit. We shall also esteem it a favor of our book lovers if they will report to us the title, author and publisher of books they think are entitled to a place in this column.

By S. H. BASHOR.

IN CLOTH, postpaid, 20c.

The author says in his preface: "So many books have been written about Christ, telling people to come to Christ, yet failing to give a tangible idea how Christ is to be found. We thought of letting this work fill that place: Tell people of Christ, when to seek for salvation and how to obtain it." We think the little work meets the want very well.
